

Know how to use your technology, and practice beforehand.

Dress just as if you were interviewing in person.

Find a place in your home or nearby that will be quiet and have a good Internet connection.

Buy or borrow the tech equipment you'll need.

Have everything that you'll need at hand for the interview.

DO NOT DISTURB!

Ask roommates to not disturb you, remove pets from the room, and put your phone on silent.

Tips for Acing a REMOTE INTERVIEW

SOURCES:

huffingtonpost.com | linkedin.com | youlooklab.com |
remoteworkerdaily.com | articles.businessinsider.com |
orderstonowhere.com