Give a summary without spoilers!

After starring in the popular show "Horsin' Around", BoJack Horseman struggles with his bad popularity, depression, addiction, and maintaining the relationships with people he cares about, but can't seem to stop hurting them, all while living in the ironic city of Hollywood which later became Hollywoo and then Hollywoob.

What drew you to this movie?

The storyline of Bojack Horseman drew me to this show. I loved how descriptive it was and after I watched the trailer I just knew I had to watch this.

Did it remind you of something that you've previously watched or read?

No this hasn't reminded me of something but if you have problems like Bojack then this will probably remind you of your life.

To whom would you recommend this movie?

Bojack Horseman by Raphael Bob-Waksberg would be a great show for someone who doesn't know what to watch and likes comedy and animated shows. It may have a lot of 16+ things in it so I wouldn't recommend it for children.

Overall, did you like it and would you recommend it to others?

I loved Bojack Horseman and I would recommend it to others. I would recommend it because each episode has something new and they all have great plot leading up to the last episode of the last season. You will see all the struggles Bojack Horseman went through and all the other characters.

Anything else that you would like to add to this review? What made you choose it? Did you like the cover? Was it recommended to you? Did you find it at the library?

This show was recommended to me, so I read what it was about and watched the trailer and when I watched the first episode I knew I'd love it. If you know me you know I get bored of things quickly so the fact that I watched all the seasons and episodes shows that you may like it too. There are 6 seasons in the show.
