Give a summary without spoilers!

The show begins when a woman coming out of a long-term relationship moves in with three men. The 7 seasons follow the group of friends as they get closer and deal with life, love, and silly situations.

What drew you to this tv show?

I saw glimpses of this show when friends and family members were watching it, but after watching the first episode myself, I was hooked. The characters are all unique in their own way and they have excellent chemistry that really hooks a viewer in.

Did it remind you of something that you've previously watched or read?

It is similar to other sitcoms such as Community and Parks and Recreation; these also follow groups of friends and coworkers in different settings.

To whom would you recommend this movie?

New Girl is great for anyone looking for a funny show to watch when they just want to relax and laugh. There are also romances on the show in which the couples have great chemistry but take a few seasons to get together, so it makes the show interesting and lovable.

Overall, did you like it and would you recommend it to others?

I LOVE this show. I've watched the whole thing at least four times, and I always can rely on it to make me laugh. It is great for anyone around age 15 and up. I recommend it to anyone who asks me for a TV recommendation.

Anything else that you would like to add to this review? What made you choose it? Did you like the cover? Was it recommended to you? Did you find it at the library?

After looking up the creator of this show, I am interested in watching other movies and shows she's worked on because New Girl is such a great show.
