In the high school she goes to there is this group known as the Warheads and is bullying this girl. They somehow found a way to terrorize her using a very high-tech VR video game they all play. Lois is set on solving this mystery, equipped with her new job as a reporter.

What drew you to this book?

I really like superhero comics so seeing a book about Lois Lane, the love interest of Superman, in an independent book really drew my attention. Being able to see a glimpse of Lois Lane's teenage years was an amazing experience.

Did it remind you of something that you've previously read?

This book didn't remind me of any books I've read in the past. However, it was nice seeing Lois as a teenager.

To whom would you recommend this book?

I would recommend this book to anyone that likes mystery and fast paced books. This book would also appeal to people who like sci-fi and futuristic tech novels. This book also includes romance to those who like romance books.

Overall, did you like it and would you recommend it to others?

I really liked this book because it had a character I already knew. I would definitely recommend this book because this book made me ecstatic seeing the younger side of Lois.

Anything else that you would like to add to this review? What made you choose it? Did you like the cover? Was it recommended to you? Did you find it at the library?

I found this book in the library in the YA section. I chose this book mainly because it was about Lois Lane.
