Give a summary without spoilers!

Steve Rogers is a skinny, short, and weak boy whose dreams are to be in the military. Wanting to fight against the Nazis, Rogers will do whatever it takes. After signing up for his fifth time, he gets noticed by a scientist. He tells him that he will give Rogers a chance to be in the military. Although not being the most fit or fast, Rogers shows that he will do anything, and has extreme amounts of dedication. This scientist makes Steve Rogers a super soldier called Captain America. With his new strength, he begins to win wars and is a symbol for America in the war. Fighting against the dark forces of evil and the Red Skull, Captain America sacrifices everything. Captain America shows the true values of perseverance and standing up for what you believe in.

What drew you to this tv show?

Something that drew me to this movie was the other Avengers movie. I wanted to know Captain America's backstory as it was mentioned several times throughout the MCU. Not only that, but the setting of World War II also sparked some interest.

Did it remind you of something that you've previously watched or read?

This reminded me of another movie in the MCU. This is very similar to a movie like Iron Man, as it shows the backstory of one of the greatest heroes ever. It is also very close to Thor, for the same reason.

To whom would you recommend this movie?

I would recommend this media to anyone who likes a good underdog movie. Steve Rogers was a really skinny and short boy, who wanted to join the army. He is very dedicated, and is the perfect candidate to become a super soldier. This movie is also good for action lovers.

Overall, did you like it and would you recommend it to others?

I would recommend this movie because it is very inspiring. It shows what perseverance and dedication can lead to. This is also a very important movie to watch, as it is referenced several times throughout many other movies in the MCU.

Anything else that you would like to add to this review? What made you choose it? Did you like the cover? Was it recommended to you? Did you find it at the library?

I really like the cover of this movie, as it shows Steve Rogers as a super soldier, or Captain America. It shows his iconic shield and uniform as well. Lastly, it is very clean with its colors, representing America with red, white, and blue.
