Superhero, Cartoon

Give a summary without spoilers!

Invincible shows the story of a teenager named Mark Grayson who's dad is the strongest superhero alive, Omni Man. Mark is eagerly waiting for his superpowers to come, but his dad tells him to be patient. When he gets these powers, he starts to become the superhero he has always dreamt off. But, when a group of heroes are killed, an investigation begins to arise. As Invincible becomes a hero, he really wonders if his dad is really who he thinks he is.

What drew you to this tv show?

Something that drew me to this media was the storyline. Many of my friends have told me that the plot is really good. Not only that, but Invincible's characters are really popular.

Did it remind you of something that you've previously watched or read?

This has reminded me of another series called The Flash. Both shows have the same layout, as a new superhero begins to embark on their journey. There is also suspense involved.

To whom would you recommend this movie?

I would recommend this media to anyone who likes superhero shows. This is also a mystery, and provides some laughs. However, some of the elements of this show can be a little violent.

Overall, did you like it and would you recommend it to others?

I really enjoyed this show, and would recommend it to anyone. The episodes are really connected, and the mystery is very well made. I think that this show is a great way to spend time.

Anything else that you would like to add to this review? What made you choose it? Did you like the cover? Was it recommended to you? Did you find it at the library?

I liked the cover of this show since it shows the main character, Invincible with his suit on. The colors blue and yellow really go together.
